"More About the Bonds.

"Then came the discovery by the bond houses that the road was mortgaged up to its ears with contracts covering the equipment of some twenty-five locomotives, eleven passenger cars, two parlor cars and 888 freight cars. Even the road's right of way came into question. But the houses had gone so deeply into the project that they had to support Haskell, who was made president of the road on the elimination of E. R. Thomas.

"In the course of the liquidation Haskell settled for $22,009 one claim to the amount of 163,16481. His total issue of stocks and bonds against the railroad."

the late President McKiniey. Their headquarters was in a brokerage house in the Johnson Building, at Broad and New streets, where they played the stock market and organized promotion schemes.

"The most notable promotion put out by Haskell was the Detroit and Lima Northern, which was refused a listing by the New York Stock Exchange. In fact, it fell into a receivership before the necessary six months of operation demanded by the Stock Exchange had been covered. This road was to connect Detroit and the Ohio coal and iron belt.

"The bonds looked all right, and a number of good houses bought them and then sold them to their customers recommending them highly. Those they did not sell they still have in another form.

Mr. Youngwife-"Does Skoodums want to dink out of Dada's coffee tup?'

Mrs. Youngwife-"Oh, Lovey, he's spilled that coffee on himself. That's the twenty-eighth little frock he's just ruined. Those stains don't come out."

Anty Drudge—"Oh, yes, they will, Mrs. Youngwife. Just you use Fels-Naptha in cool or lukewarm water, and you'll have no trouble in keeping little Napoleon's frocks clean and white."

A friend that will save you threefourths the work and all the drudgery of washing is a friend indeed.

Fels-Naptha is that friend.

Bring it into your laundry and kitchen, give it a chance to do the work you've been pounding out by main strength, and Fels-Naptha will be your close friend—not for a month or a year, but for life.

Fels-Naptha saves you not only work and time, both summer and winter, but makes your clothes sweeter and cleaner, preserves them, makes them wear longer.

It saves you the coal or gas necessary to heat water and boil the clothes, as Fels-Naptha does its cleansing in cool or lukewarm water.

All that's necessary on your part is to follow the easy directions printed on the red and green wrapper.
